DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendments filed August 10, 2004 have been entered. The addition of claims 9-10 is acknowledged. Claims 6 and 8-10 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Koyama et al. (EP 0984 001 A1 from IDS received November 7, 2001), essentially the reason of record.

Koyama et al. teaches a method of treating viral infection, particularly hepatitis, by employing 20mg/kg of the compounds of formula (V) (See page 17, paragraph [0105]-[0108], also in claim 26-27). Koyama et al. also teaches the compound of Formula (V) as administered as food product (See page 16 – 17, paragraph [0105]).

Claims 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Koyama et al., as evidenced by Van Why et al. (Current Opinion in Nephrology and Hypertension, 1998; 7:407-412).

Koyama et al. teaches a method of employing compounds of formula (V) to improve hepatic function and induce heat shock protein (See page 9, paragraph [0047]).

Therefore, administration of the compounds herein is seen to be useful in treating cirrhosis and renal failure patients.

Van Why et al. teaches heat shock protein is protective in renal injuries (See the abstract).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 6 and 8-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
